

BARRY NICKS

"You look lost. Don't.
Not here."

"You treat every lake like a trap. You never know what's inside, so you see water, you stay away. I'd expect a Floridian to know those rules."

"You call that a claw? That's not a claw. Now this is a claw."

"Yeah, the vest's made of leather.
Something I like about wearing mammal skin. Little reminder that evolution doesn't always work out."

"Just my luck. Apex predator of the Cretaceous, and my descendants end up next to a bunch of theme parks. How embarrassing."

BETTY VICKSON

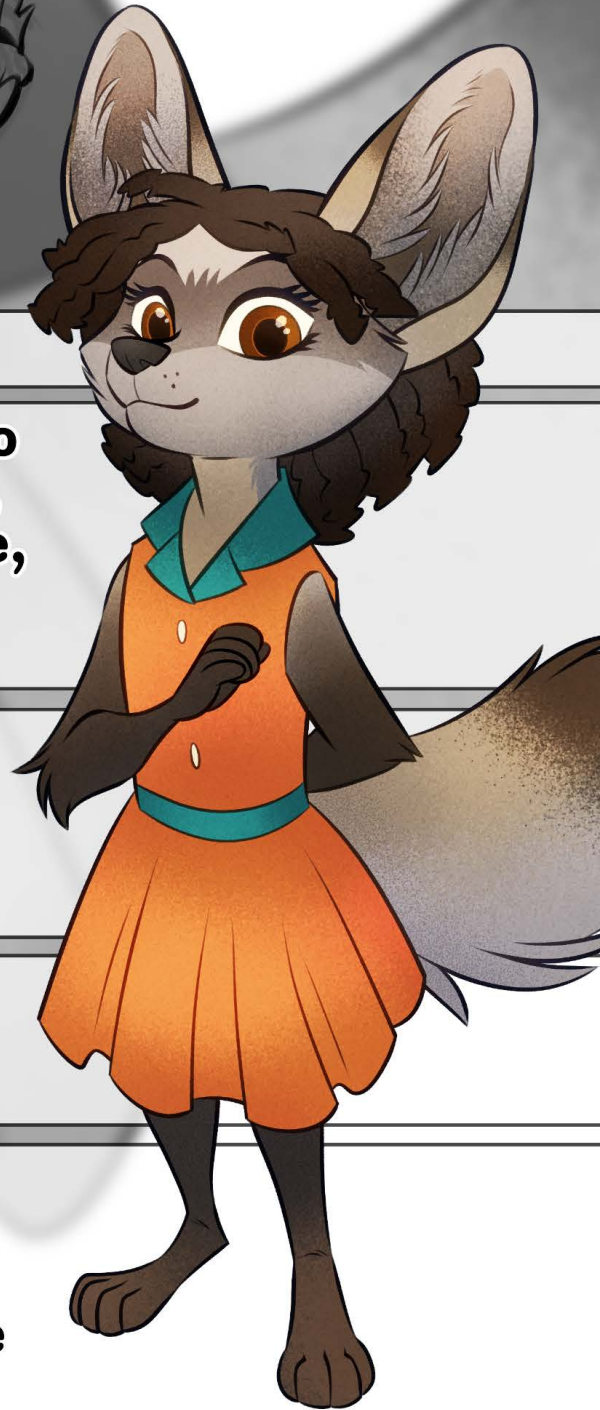

"Thrilling as a theme park!"

"Yes, sir, there's just so much to see in Orlando! Epic Universe, CityWalk, Islands of Adventure, Volcano Bay--what's that? Disney? Never heard of it."

"Do I look like someone who would ever want to pretend being a princess? Do I? I'd rather have the real thing."

"Drink around the world? Oh, that's for babies. I drink around the universe."

"Ooooh, have you met Captain Cacao? Oh my God, he is so handsome! I just love his sash and his adorable hat! See, some parks are just better dressed."

FAIRLIGHT

"May the sun shine brightly on you!"

"This is Furassic World? It's beautiful! Look at those creatures! I've never seen that color of aura before."

"Extinct? These beautiful creatures? No! No, that can't be! How could anyone let that happen? Why would--oh. A meteor? Ah."

"So, I know the dinosaurs are prehistoric, but is the grass prehistoric, too? Because it just feels so different between my toes!"

"Oh, I've never felt this calm before. I love it. Everything here is so--unevolved."

FATHOM

"For the sea!"

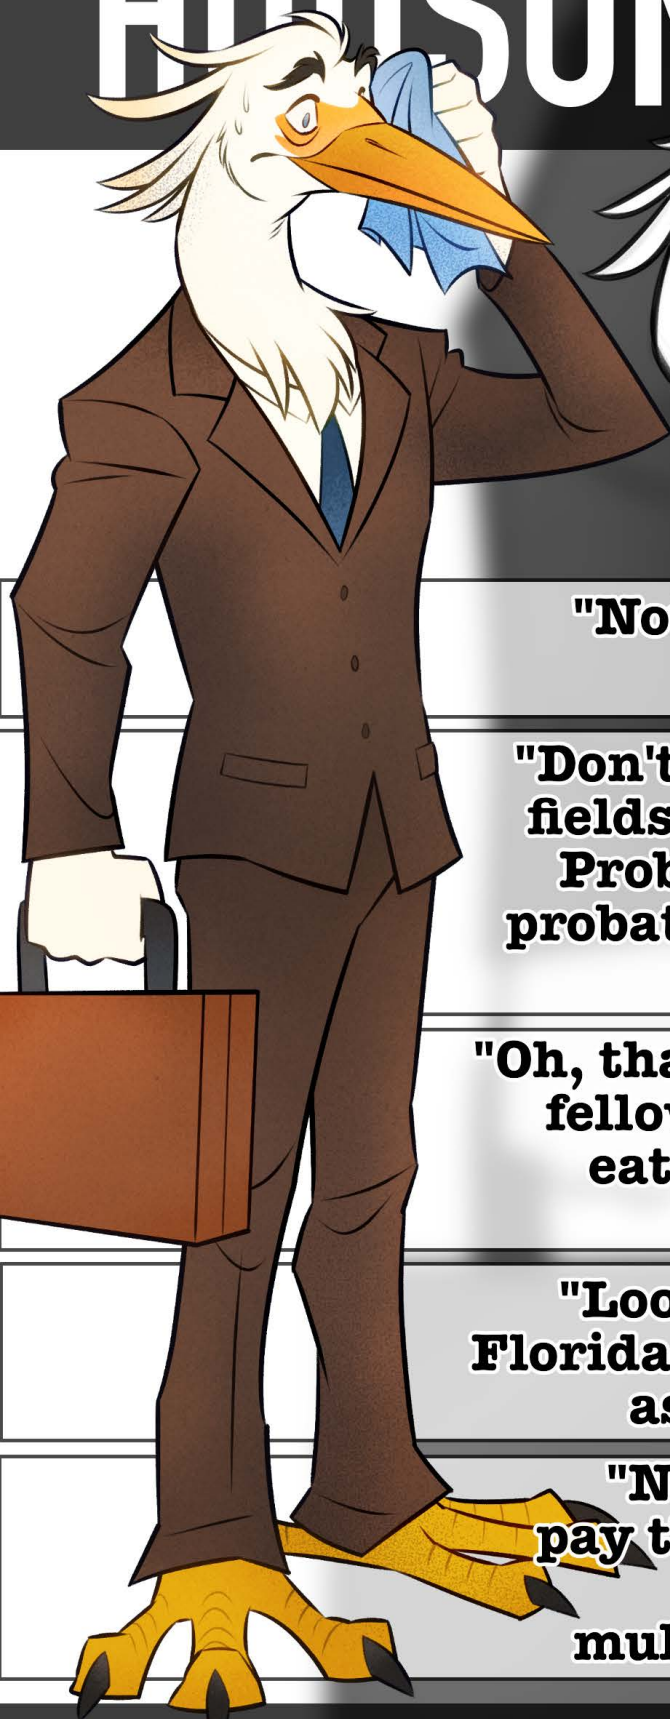

"The Skaraks have gone too far this time. We will gut them like sea cucumbers and feed their entrails to our hatchlings!"

"Was that an insult? Weight means little in the currents, land-dweller. We don't have those kinds of scales."

"Yes, I was staring. I'm sorry, I don't mean to offend. It's just that in the deep, nothing shines the way you do."

"What? Of course I've been to Orlando! SeaWorld has many great warriors of the ocean! And--uh--I take the hatchlings every year."

HUDSON EGGERS

"Nothing like egrets to hear your regrets."

"Don't you worry, I know all the fields of Florida jurisprudence. Probate, land use, contracts, probate, property--did I mention probate?"

"Oh, that gator? Don't worry, he's a fellow member of the bar. Not eating me is a professional courtesy."

"Look, I agree it's unfair, but Florida law treats pythons like you as an invasive species."

"No, ma'am! You may not pay this heron for a hearing in herring, only mullet will pass my gullet!"

MOLLY DUNE

"You could say I'm a clever girl."

"Hey, hey, hey! Stay on the path! I'm not telling you again! You have no idea how dangerous these animals are. Or me!"

"Velociraptor. Yes, velociraptor. Really!"

"Wait, wait, wait, don't move. Stop moving! If we stay still, we'll be fine, he can only see movement. Part of why I stopped dating him."

"That noise? That's the Parasaurolophus. A hadrosaur with a trumpet. Nature always finds a way. To annoy you."

NORMAL GEORGIAN

"Hello, Floridians! Do not fear!
I am simply a Normal Georgian visiting from the North."

"Show me the holding facilities!
I hear you store hundreds of thousands in blistering heat!
And they pay to enter! Show me how you do it!"

"Brilliant! This turkey leg will provide protein to prepare the subjects for harvest. And this churro will add sweetness."

"How many lakes can there be?
This is absurd! The planet's surface must be repaired!"

"Where are the rocket launches? Take me there now!
I must, uh, return to Georgia."

PAYSON RHINEHART

"Well, of course I love old tech! I mean, look at me!"

"Helical scanning was genius! By using an angled head rotating opposite the direction of the tape, VHS was able to record far more information on the surface than--are you listening?"

"You didn't rewind? Why didn't you rewind? It asked nicely on the box that you rewind!"

"There's nothing wrong with pan-and-scan! TVs were more square back then! It made perfect sense at the time!"

"Please return these video cassettes by Monday or there will be a $30 fine per day."

@soga_sai404

"What is up, chat? We're live in the Sunshine State! "

"So, @GatorGamer99 wants me to check out some place called Gatorland? Like--isn't that in Gainesville?"

"So, turns out there's a lot to experience in Orlando! And like--they're all called experiences. Seriously, that preschool is called The Learning Experience."

"Like and subscribe!"

"Hey, guys, rent's up and those pawmaxxing tips got me demonetized. Harsh! I know! If you can help, check out the link in my bio and support my livestream!"
